Changing the way change happens

Being a change agent can feel like a high risk assignment. With strong requirements and expectations from those ordering up the change - as well as from those being impacted by the change - your task is to deliver expected benefits, on time, to budget and with as little disruption as possible to the rest of organisational life.

The ChangeWorks is designed to support you in your challenging role.

Pre-requisites If you have attended the two-day Managed Change™ workshop and are actively working to implement change in your organisation you are welcome to join any of our ChangeWorks sessions.

Format Each half day session enables up to six change practitioners to work with an Irving Allan facilitator. The agenda has some flexibility but the session is constructed to allow everyone guaranteed airtime to make progress with their current change agenda as well as the opportunity to learn from others. There is no joining fee and you can opt in on a per-session basis.

What will I gain? Each event is designed to:

- Provide you with the opportunity to network with other change agents, facing similar and different challenges, in similar or different environments
- Deepen your knowledge and understanding of the Managed Change™ approach and tools
- Share your success stories and learn from others'
- Hone your change agency skills and prepare to have greater impact

The ChangeWorks is likely to be of particular value to those new to Managed Change™ and to established practitioners seeking a focused and supportive environment for development in their role.

What other support is available? For large-scale changes and for those with more complex issues at play, we provide a range of project consulting and coaching services. Advanced level Managed Change™ training is also available.

For change teams wishing to develop their individual and collective capability we recommend a Managed Change™ Project Workshop in the first instance. Contact us for further information.

Cost £175 per session, including refreshments.
